FLORIDA INTERGENERATIONAL
ORCHESTRA

FOR IMMEDIATE
RELEASE 1/31/2013

Salute to America and its Armed Forces

The Florida Intergenerational Orchestra, the orchestra for everyone, announces a special concert honoring America and its Armed Forces

Boca Raton, Florida-On Sunday, February 17th, at 3 P.M. the Florida Intergenerational Orchestra will be performing a special concert honoring America and its Armed Forces at O'Shea Hall, Our Lady of Lourdes Church, 22904 Lyons Rd, Boca Raton, (corner of Lyons and Palmetto). The Florida Intergenerational Orchestra, under the direction of Lorraine Marks-Field, will also be honoring one of its own players, Ray Johnson, their 93 -year- old French Horn player, who was a Commander in the Navy and served with distinction during both World War 11, stationed in Okinawa, and the Korean War. Several other members of this intergenerational orchestra featuring musicians spanning the ages of 10 to 93 were members of the Armed Forces and will participate in patriotic music, including marches of John Phillips Sousa, and the military anthems. The Florida Intergenerational Orchestra was recently honored by the State of Florida with its first annual "Legacy Award" for its concept of "blending the generations through music."

The last concert of the season, "Illusionist Mesmerizes the Audience," will take place on Sunday April 14th, 2013, 3 P.M. also at O'Shea Hall. Want to join the orchestra—no auditions required—just bring your instrument to our rehearsals on Thursday nights at O'Shea Hall. 7-9 P.M. We are especially interested in increasing the number of youthful players and adding a trombone player. This 501c 3 orchestra could also use a baby grand piano. If anyone is interested in donating a baby grand piano, which would be eligible as a tax- deductible gift to the orchestra, please contact us. The Florida Intergenerational Orchestra is a great family orchestra where grandma, grandpa, mom and dad and the kids can all enjoy a day of "Boston Pops" type music. Tickets: Tickets are general seating $10.00 for adults and free for children under 12, accompanied by an adult. Tickets can be obtained at the door of Our Lady of Lourdes Church on the day of the concert. Group sales of 10 or more are available at a discount. Don't miss the chance to be a part of the magic.
