

Contact: Bob Field
Tel. 561-482-8206
BobF1000@aol.com
www.flioa.org

FLORIDA INTERGENERATIONAL
ORCHESTRA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE-
August 31st, 2015

“To continue our 10th Anniversary”

Florida Intergenerational Orchestra’s New Season is about to begin. Open House and Youth Scholarships

Boca Raton, Florida—Recently featured in the August issue of GRAND Magazine, as a “Grand Legacy” The Florida Intergenerational Orchestra is culminating its 10th Anniversary celebratory season with a thrilling array of joyous music for every palate. Despite its longevity, this marvelous community orchestra continues to be a hidden gem, utilizing the talents of a broad spectrum of musicians, blending the generations with players from the ages of 10 to 95. It is an orchestra like no other. The orchestra is offering a FREE Open House for new members and youth scholarship auditions on Thursdays, October 8th and October 15th at 7 :30 p.m.. at Patch Reef Park, 2000 Yamato Park Road, ¼ mile west of Military trail, Boca Raton. Dust off your instrument and bring a music stand. Come on down and join the orchestra.

The Florida Intergenerational Orchestra, the orchestra for everyone, continues to celebrate its 10th Anniversary with a “Holiday Extravaganza” on Sunday, December 6th, 3 P.M. at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, O’Shea Hall, 22094 Lyons Road, Boca Raton The program is thrilling array of music celebrating all the holidays. The musical selections are geared to an audience of all ages, including interactive experiences. A well-known guest conductor from our community will surprise our audience. Doors open at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are $10 per adult, children under 12 free.

All concerts this season will have a pre-concert talk narrated by conductor , Lorraine Marks-Field. This inside look at the orchestra will help the audience find out more about our eclectic orchestra and meet special guest performers close-up. Insight into the orchestra adds to the meaning and understanding of the concept of “Healthy Aging Through Music”.

Tickets can be obtained at the door the day of performance or by calling ahead to reserve —561-482-8206.

If you would like more information about the orchestra, or to schedule an interview with Lorraine Marks-Field, our conductor, please call Bob Field at 561-482-8206 or e-mail strings4all@aol.com. Check out our website at www.flioa.org. Visit us on FACEBOOK

---

---